

FOOTBALL CHAMPIONS OF THE DOMINION

The Ottawa Rough Riders and the Slick Executive Which Took the Cake.

There is probably nothing connected with the city of Ottawa with the exception of its being the Capital of the Dominion, which has so attracted it abroad as its prominence in scientific aspects of all kinds. The champagne-makers which have found a fertile place in Ottawa could be mentioned almost by the dozen. In recent years, however, next to the Capital has come "rough," which has won almost international fame, stands the Rough Rider Hagar Twisted stick, the organization which this year launched the champagne-makers of Canada after a season of brilliant to the city and to start an enterprise of mining, using a number of the crew which won the four-year championship at Stockton last summer.

FRANK MCKEE.

Frank McKee, who played full-back for the Boston Braves last season, is an old friend of mine, and, George, George Hall and Augustus man. Though

CAPTAIN OHIO, KENNEDY.

George Kennedy, captain, now is being named the King of the Bunch of Wild Football teams. It is more than 25 years ago since George began playing the football game, and he has been inspiring ever since, still today he is a football player, and he has been named the greatest ever mentioned. That the football games have ever produced. He started the game while a student at Queen's university and on moving to Toronto continued himself with the Rough Riders club.

here is the city where his parents reside, he has figured on the above named organizations and played a prominent part in the Argentinean last year. He was unable to get in the final match last Wednesday owing to injuries to his shoulder. Mr. Mader is a barrister and is building up a fine practice in Ottawa.

R. BACALANTZ.

Thomas Mader, who played football for the Hingham Indians in 1910, at Marquette, since returning, when the championship was won, is a well known college boy, but has played with playing the same position in the northern league for the past three years. It is as the ideal athlete as he never loses his temper under the most trying circumstances. His complete knowledge of the game has been his main factor in winning the Canadian championship twice in Chicago. He is an officer in the Canadian police force at the parliament building.

II. 2. BUCKLEHAM.

Herbert J. Buckleham is an old Canadian and has played the same game in the same days when the officers were in the Quebec square. He is one of the best athletes in the game.

CHIEFS since 1908. He is an elegant gentleman and well known on the football line where he, Southern and Frank Meloy played last year. He is fast and a good kicker and his football game has plenty of possibilities for his yet. Standing in the company of the Canadian club service line.

WALTER BOYD.

Walter Boyd, who played right-half for the Chiefs, is a comparatively new man on the Canadian

Students are concerned. He is a graduate of Toronto University and played with that football team previously, so is a young fellow of great promise, and this a hard problem in the geological survey.

"JACK" FOWLER.

"Jack" Fowler, the full-back of the champions, is a nervous wreck. He is a solid member of the United League team's home guard. He is just as good a football man as is as fast as the gridiron as a grand career winner. He played his first senior match on the Oshawa team in 1904 against Montreal, there being tied at 2 points each. Montreal refusing to play longer, he drove home a goal with Oshawa as a victor.

Before he is an Ottawa boy and is manager of the clothing department of H. Masson's men's store establishment.

ED. MURPHY.

Ed. Murphy, Ottawa's center-half is another gridiron wonder who also is a star on the Capital Income team.

He learned the game with Ottawa college and remained with that organization until this season when he came out with the city team. He is a very fast and a sure catch besides being one of the most expert dodgers that ever played the game. He is a member of the boys of Murphy and O'Brien associations.

PAT MURPHY.

Pat Murphy, the formidable quarterback of the city team, is one of those little bit of bad goods who are downy in what parents. He has the best and the worst of the team's quarterback in mind. He is a born quarterback and besides playing football is a crack home lawrence man. Pat Murphy's football experience was acquired with Ottawa college. He, however, did not play the game with that team in '05 and like your name out with the national. He is a brother of Edna Murphy's and is a Christian.

R. TELFORD.

F. TELFORD, who played on the winner for the champion this season, is a former Toronto "barney" man, who has come to reside in the city. He is a

Jim Moore, wing man and is a devoted organization in the Ottawa town. Trained in an empire of the Canadian civil service.

"JIM" MOORE.

"Jim" Moore, of the Rough Rider campaign wing line, is one of the winners of the game in that position. At outside wing he is a wonder and plays an winning game. He is a other player who was developed by Cusack's college and he played with that during the war completely ruined my health. It seemed especially to settle in the kidneys and end bladder, and caused me extreme pain. I do not think I would ever be any better. I had spent all I could on medicine, but so help did receive. An army comrade brought me a bottle of WARNER'S CURE, and it relieved me some, taking it for four months, and better than I have for years. it is!

ODDIE LAFLEUR.

Oddie Lafleur has played on the Ontario Wing Division since 1908. He is one of the hardest men to tackle playing the game in Canada today and is played makes him a dangerous opponent. Indeed, previous to his coming out with the Beach Hotel, he was an Ottawa college player. He is a tinner and works with his brother, who is in business at Raleigh street.

PREDICT JOEY.

Joe Joey is another wing man who has done much to win glory for the Beach Hotel. Since 1906 he has teamed out with the team and done tremendous work. He is a cool, reliable man and besides playing football is an excellent player. He comes from Washington, D. C.

STEWART RAYBIDE.
Stewart Raybide has been alive in the kingdom wing case of the Ring Riders. He joined the game at Queen's university and his cool brain and long experience has made him an invaluable factor in winning games for Ontario. Physically, he is a giant and there is not a wing man in Canada today who can hold him. He works for his father in the lumber sons. He played one under match and average and is a shrewd observer of the flow points of the game. He is one of the best of the club.
